

CONTENT

Preface

Introduction

1. Old age in the social evolution and in the man's life
 - 1.1 Sociology of the old age
 - 1.2 Perception of the old age and seniors by the Czech population
2. Generation and its relation to the society
 - 2.1 What is meant by a generation
 - 2.2 Social activity of a generation and its three phases
 - 2.3 Social dynamic of a generation
3. Demographical trend and its impact on ageing of the society
 - 3.1 Causes of changes of the birth rate
 - 3.2 Causes of protraction of the medium length of life
 - 3.3 Retirement age and the pension
4. Generation of seniors in the history of the society
 - 4.1 Methodology of research investigation of the three-generation social fibre
 - 4.2 Generation of the contemporary seniors as a continuity and discontinuity link
 - 4.3 Contemporary generation of seniors and the history
 - 4.4 Life field of the social fibre and its dynamic
 - 4.5 Education in the generation context
5. Lifestyle of seniors
 - 5.1 Social field and the activities of seniors
 - 5.2 Time schedule and the activities of seniors
 - 5.3 Family and the lifestyle of seniors
6. The contemporary generation of seniors
 - 6.1.1 Generation interface of the literate culture and cyber-culture
 - 6.1.2 Seniors, computer and internet
 - 6.2.1 Work, employment and economy
 - 6.2.2 Advantages of the working seniors
 - 6.3.1 Socio-economical and health situation of seniors
 - 6.3.2 Income and the economical situation of seniors
 - 6.4 Values, spirituality, worldview
7. Society, state, senior
 - 7.1 Assessment of the Czech society and civilisation
 - 7.2 Preparedness for ageing of the society
 - 7.3 Importance and function of the old age and seniors in the awareness of the society
 - 7.4 Assessment of the Czech society and civilization

Conclusion

Bibliography

Subject index

Name index

Key words (Czech, English)

Supplements:

Interview with Mr. Ilja Hurník

Interview with prof..Phdr. Jarmila Skalková, DrSc.

Interview with Mr. Miroslav Polreich

Ms. Romana Křenková: Onomatopoetic death name

Characteristic of the empiric research investigations

List of graphs and tables

Annotation

English annotation

English content